

JOB ADVERTISEMENT

Child Welfare Social Worker, OROMOCTO FIRST NATION

Oromocto First Nation Child and Family Services Agency is seeking to hire a qualified individual to work as a Child Welfare Social Worker, working in Child Protection and Prevention Social Work as needed. Apply today and join our strong growing dynamic team and reward yourself with our special employee benefits you won't get elsewhere.

An office with The Wolastoq view? YES!

Duties: As a Child Welfare Social Worker you will be proficient with duties in the areas of Case Management, Assessments, Intervention, Mediation and seeking out appropriate resources. Other duties may be required of you as needed.

Qualifications/Assets

- Bachelor or Masters degree in Social Work;
- Registered and in good standing with the New Brunswick Association of Social Workers (NBASW).
- Preferable Child Welfare experience and experience working in First Nations Child and Family services an asset.
- A familiarity with, and genuine interest in working in a First Nations community. and/or a demonstrated ability to be sensitive to cultural issues would be an asset.
- Possess a knowledge of the legislation, standards, and procedures and enforcement of the Family services Act.
- Be mature and use professional judgement and initiative.
- Completion of the CORE 100 series is an asset.
- Must provide a recent NB criminal record check (within the past 12 months); and,
- Must have a valid driver's license and reliable transportation.

Please forward your resume, cover letter, and three references in person or via email to:

OFN HR Director Jay Sabattis, jay.sabattis@ofnb.com
4 Hiawatha Ave., Oromocto First Nation New Brunswick
OR

OFN CFS Director Ron MacDougall, ron.macdougall@ofnb.com
35 Hiawatha Ave., Oromocto First Nation